COLLIER/CARTER

REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION

A March 4, 2011, letter from Joe Keffer, Warden of the Federal Bureau of Prisons, Federal Medical Center at Carswell and Forensic Evaluation of defendant were received by the undersigned Court. It is the opinion of the examiner that defendant is presently competent to stand trial, is fully aware of the nature and potential consequences of the pending criminal charges, and is also capable of properly assisting in her defense.

A waiver of competency hearing was filed on July 11, 2011 (Doc. 342). The Court RECOMMENDS on the basis of the waiver and the report that defendant Mary Revels be found competent to stand trial.¹
